The City of Englewood is part of the Certified Local Government (CLG) program? Certified Local Governments are counties or municipalities that have been endorsed by the State Historic Preservation Office (History Colorado) and the National Park Service to participate in the national preservation program while maintaining standards consistent with the National Historic Preservation Act and the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Archaeology and Historic Preservation.

While the historic midcentury modern neighborhood of Arapahoe Acres is a National Register district, this doesn't mean that Englewood doesn't have more to offer when it comes to historic sites. As a CLG, Englewood can locally landmark properties, helping those property owners to gain access to preservation incentives and to help provide guidance on best preservation practices.
