What a treasure you have shared with Englewood and the Historic Society. It will take us a while to figure out what all is there and to organize it. Thank you City of Englewood for providing us with a safe place to store all the items.

DID YOU KNOW? LORETTO HEIGHTS

There was community involvement to work with the developers in the Loretto Heights College campus redevelopment. That got me to thinking about the history especially at Memorial Day. These pictures are the Women's Auxiliary of Fort Logan during World War I. The Sisters of Loretto organized the Auxiliary and the women camped out on the Loretto campus.

A LETTER FROM RMRHS

On behalf of the members, and Board of the RMRHS we wish to thank the members of EHPS for their very generous donation of $2500. These funds will help move our 1905 wooden Colorado and Southern coach from Denver to Calhan, Colorado where we will restore it and eventually donate it to the town of Calhan.

This coach, it is hoped will play a major role in bringing the people in the area of Calhan to the railroad interpretive center. As a way of saying thank you, we invite EHPS to participate in Calhan Days on July 13th and 14th.

It is through the generous donation by EHPS that this 113 year old car will have a new chapter in its long existence. The car will be moved from its current location to Calhan about mid May. Please join us on July 13th and 14th for Calhan Depot Days and tour the station and cars being restored.

~ Jim Jordan

When EHPS was first formed with the goal of restoring the Englewood Santa Fe depot, the Santa Fe Railroad Historical Society gave EHPS a grant to help restore the building. Since we do not own the building and the money must be used for a railroad project, we decided to transfer the grant to the Rocky Mountain Railroad Heritage Society. RMRHS is heavily involved with many projects in an effort to restore and preserve the history of the railroads not only in Colorado but other states as well.

ENGLEWOOD LIBRARY MILITARY DISPLAY

Have you visited the library recently? EHPS has a display window near the South entrance. Our current display honors veterans and all the military branches of the government and is an invitation to the upcoming Memorial Day Celebration on May 27th at 2pm at Englewood High School. Thank you to all who served and given their lives for our Country. Have a look the next time you are at the library. Most items on display were generously donated by Englewood
